Overview:
This nationally accredited qualification is suitable to participants who work or would like to gain employment in a childcare education and care environment. This qualification is the current industry minimum standard to become a qualified assistant and educator in a childcare centre. Participants will gain knowledge of the Education and Care Services National Regulations and the National Quality Standard. Participants will gain the skills to support the implementation of an approved learning framework, and support children’s wellbeing, learning and development. Participants are required to complete work placement of a minimum 120 hours in an approved childcare centre. Australian Training Institute can assist you with finding a suitable centre or participants can source their own.
