

Fire Safety Advisor (Queensland)

Overview:

As of 1 July 2009, under the Queensland Building Fire Safety Regulation 2008, all high occupancy buildings are legally required to appoint a FSA. Participants who have been appointed as or wish to work as a Fire Safety Advisor are required to complete this course. This training provides participants with the skills and knowledge to carry out the duties of the Fire Safety Advisor, such as developing risk management strategies and advising on emergency planning processes.

Completion of this course not only satisfies the training requirements for the 'Fire Safety Advisor' role under the Queensland Building Fire Safety Regulations 2008, but meets the national qualifications in emergency prevention, workplace evacuation and the initial response training required to deal with emergencies in the workplace.

Pre-requisites:

Participants must have basic computer skills and access to a reliable computer with internet, email access, and access to Microsoft Word software.

Licence & Regulatory Requirements:

Due to industry standards this course is required to be completed every 3 years to stay up to date with the current legislation.
